

Quo Vadis I

Šime Garma

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Captain Šime is deeply passionate about the sea. He has 20 years of experience in the charter industry, starting with boat maintenance and progressing to Captain, mastering several yachts along the way. From navigation to route planning, his understanding of charter operations is outstanding. Šime was the Base Manager at Marina Baotic, overseeing a fleet of 40 yachts and providing excellent service. For many years, he's been the trusted First officer on a gorgeous 35-meter sailing boat and working as a deputy Captain when needed, where he's helped with everything from maintenance to navigation. With Šime at the helm, rest assured your sailing journey will be nothing but extraordinary.

Mitja Barać

CHEF

Croatian

Mitja is a passionate and well-organized chef with a cheerful personality and a strong background in culinary arts. After completing his culinary education in Split, he gained valuable experience in prestigious hotels and restaurants in his home town. Fluent in English and driven by adventure, Mitja is now bringing his skills to the yachting industry, aiming to elevate his culinary performance to the next level. His love for sports, travel, and exploration fuels his creativity in the kitchen, allowing him to create diverse menus. Dedicated, energetic and always eager to learn, Mitja thrives in dynamic environments and takes pride in delivering special dining experiences.

Maja Škugor

HOSTESS

Croatian

As a seasoned hostess with a rich background in hospitality and maritime services, Maja brings a wealth of experience and skills to any team. With a diploma in economy specializing in management in nautical tourism, she possesses a deep understanding of the industry dynamics. Her experience as a hostess on different catamarans and yachts shows she's great at providing excellent service at sea. She can speak English and understands Italian and French, which helps her communicate well with guests. With her passion for the sea and commitment to excellence, she is a valuable asset to any team seeking to elevate the guest experience in nautical tourism.