

Lady Britt

Crew Profiles

Lady Britt

LADY BRITT was launched to universal acclaim in 2011 and has become unquestionably one of the finest and most sought after charter yachts on the market.

Service from the Captain and crew has elevated proactivity to new heights. The fun and games, the thoughtfulness, and the detail all create a simply amazing level of luxury and enjoyment for LADY BRITT's guests.

Specifically being designed for charter, she has a relaxing interior with flexible accommodation that can be converted to suit guests' needs. A main-deck master is complemented by six large lower-deck guest suites, one of which can transform into a full-width VIP suite as fine as the master.

Features include a double aspect sun deck divided by an air-conditioned gym, an authentic Finnish sauna, wellness spa with a qualified Elemis Spa Therapist, and indoor and outdoor cinemas. A giant water slide and regularly updated 2,300 strong movie library adds to your enjoyment, as does the crew's unending determination to deliver the best possible charter yacht.

Patrick

Master

British

After finishing university and business school in 1990, Patrick took a year out to experience yachting and has remained in the industry ever since. During that period, he has been fortunate to work on the critically acclaimed Feadships Rasselas, Barbara Jean, and Paraffin, amongst other award-winning vessels. In that time, he has visited over 100 countries and completed a full circumnavigation of the globe. He has been a Feadship captain since 2002 and was humbled to win the Blancpain Charter Captain of the Year award at the Monaco Yacht Show in 2006; he thoroughly enjoys working in the charter industry. He also served as the Owner's Representative for the final two and a half years of Lady Britt's construction near Amsterdam in the Netherlands and has worked with her owner since 2006. His sole aim when you are on board is to ensure that you have, quite simply, the very best holiday imaginable. With some guests returning up to twelve times, it seems to be working.

Andrew

Chief Officer

British

Andrew has been in the yachting industry for the last 23 years, starting as a deckhand and working his way up to captain. He now holds his Master's licence and is focused on gaining further experience to become a full-time Master of a vessel. In his spare time, Andrew enjoys reading and following Formula 1. When back in New Zealand, he plays ice hockey and indoor football, and, given the chance, goes skiing. For the last 30 years, he has also built radio-controlled model boats and planes from scratch, as well as 5" gauge steam trains.

Omer

Second Officer

Montenegrin

Omer was born in Bar, a small town on the coast of Montenegro. As a teenager, he spent his summer holidays working as a lifeguard, where he discovered his love for the ocean. After graduating from the Maritime and Nautical Science University, he joined the world of yachting. During his time in the industry, he obtained his Officer of the Watch licence and sailed on several motor and sailing yachts. Omer loves spending time in the water swimming and paddle-boarding, as well as in the gym training others. He has an immense amount of energy and enjoys entertaining guests with watersports activities, whilst ensuring their safety is regarded with the highest priority.

Dan

Deckhand

British

Dan is from the UK, and his journey into yachting was not a straight line; he spent two years studying Economics at the University of Bath before realising that a more hands-on, adventurous lifestyle suited him far better. He has always been active, having played rugby all his life and was lucky enough to represent England at the Under 18 level. He also loves watersports, especially surfing, paddleboarding, and kayaking, all of which he has done since he was young. He plans on staying in yachting for a long time, as he finally feels as though he has found himself on the right path.

Ben

Deckhand

British

Ben grew up in Buckinghamshire, England, where he raced dinghies and instructed scouts in sailing at his local lake. He has always had a passion for being on the water and knew he wanted to work at sea. After finishing school, he began his yachting career in 2021, working for liveaboard owners for over two years and maintaining the yacht in the Mediterranean year-round. Outside of work, Ben is a keen football fan and enjoys watching Manchester United. He also loves the outdoors, often going camping and hiking with his friends. Ben's operational experience and dedication to excellence make him a valuable asset in delivering the highest standards aboard LADY BRITT.

Oscar

Deckhand

British

Oscar is from Exmoor in England's Southwest, a place that nurtured his love for adventure and the outdoors. Straight out of college, he set his sights on yachting and hasn't looked back. When he's not on board, you'll find him surfing, racing mountain bikes, or freediving with a speargun in hand. A true waterman at heart, Oscar thrives on adrenaline and brings that same passion and energy to his work on deck.

Mateusz

Head Chef

Polish

Mat was born in Kraków, Poland, and began cooking at the age of six, learning traditional recipes with his grandmother. His passion for food led him to train professionally as a chef and work in kitchens across Europe. He has worked in Michelin-starred restaurants, including Pure C by Sergio Herman in the Netherlands, and in top UK establishments such as the Rudding Park Hotel, a favourite of former US President Bill Clinton. Mat also catered the Farnborough Air Show while at the Aviator Hotel. In 2023, he completed stages at two celebrated Dutch restaurants: the one-Michelin-starred Air Republic and the two-Michelin-starred De Nieuwe Winkel, named Best Vegetable Restaurant in the World in 2022 and 2023. Recently, he further refined his skills with a stage at Amsterdam's Michelin-starred RIJKS. A career highlight came in spring 2024, when Mat won a bronze medal at the Superyacht Chef Competition in Monaco, judged by elite chefs (including a three-Michelin-starred chef) and attended by Prince Albert II. Fluent in Polish, English, Portuguese, and Greek, Mat has lived and worked in all four countries, driven by his deep love for cooking.

Harry

Sous Chef

British

Harry brings over a decade of experience in the culinary industry, having honed his skills in London's prestigious hotels and Michelin-starred restaurants under the guidance of renowned chefs such as Tom Kerridge, Lisa Goodwin-Allen, and the Galvin brothers. His passion for food was fostered from an early age by his parents, who encouraged him to explore a wide variety of cuisines. This personal interest extends into his free time, where he enjoys travelling with family and friends to discover authentic and diverse culinary experiences.

Elena

Chief Stewardess

Ukrainian

Elena was born and raised in beautiful Odessa, Ukraine, on the Black Sea coast. She spent her childhood by the sea and has found in yachting the perfect field to combine the ocean, her passion for travel, and her hospitality skills. Her career in hospitality began at the age of nineteen; since then, she has worked in five-star hotels and restaurants, spent seven years on cruise ships, and the last fifteen years on high-profile superyachts. She enjoys challenges and takes pride in providing excellent service, devoted to making your stay on board exclusive and unforgettable. In her free time, Elena enjoys being active while exploring the world and its different cultures.

Gaby

Stewardess

South African

Gaby grew up in East London, a coastal town in South Africa, where she developed a deep love for the ocean and outdoor adventure. Whether waveboarding, hiking, or exploring new trails, she thrives in active, sun-filled environments. Her passion for the water and warm, energetic personality make her a natural fit for yacht life. Gaby is thrilled to bring her enthusiasm and dedication to LADY BRITT, ensuring guests have an exceptional experience on board.

Holly

Stewardess

British

Holly is from a small countryside village in the southeast of England. A natural socialite with boundless energy, she thrives on new adventures, whether that's mastering a gymnastics routine, dancing the night away, or discovering the perfect cocktail blend. Her genuine enthusiasm for connecting with people and creating memorable experiences makes her an invaluable part of our team. Holly can't wait to welcome you aboard and ensure your time with us is nothing short of extraordinary.

Summer

Stewardess

French

Originally from the sunny south of France, Summer brings warmth and passion to all that she does. With an intuitive understanding of service excellence, she specialises in anticipating needs and crafting those perfect, spontaneous moments that elevate a good experience into an extraordinary one. She is very excited to share her love for hospitality and help create unforgettable experiences for our guests.

Juno

Stewardess

British

Juno is from the small town of Malvern in the West Midlands of the UK. She has been in yachting since 2022, working on both sailing and motor yachts. Juno has always been passionate about film, holding a degree in Acting, and loves to keep up to date with current and classic movies. She is also a keen boulderer, always aiming to find a climbing gym wherever there is an opportunity. Juno looks forward to bringing her unique blend of creativity, athleticism, and attentive service to ensure your time aboard is tailored perfectly to your preferences.

Lisa

Massage Therapist/Stewardess

Australian

Lisa is from Australia's east coast and has spent her life in and around the world's oceans: surfing, sailing, scuba diving, and exploring. She spent two years on a sabbatical working in ocean conservation with the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society, the Waitt Foundation, and National Geographic. Previously, she worked with the Lady Britt team for five years and was delighted to return in 2021. She has been practising massage aboard yachts and ashore in beautiful locations since 2007 and loves her craft. Lisa is trained in many different bodywork modalities, including Kahuna, Zen Thai, Deep Tissue, Pregnancy, and Swedish massage, as well as all of the Elemis spa treatments. Please let her know how we can tailor a treatment to suit your needs, and she will be happy to share the Lady Britt wellness spa experience with you.

Paul

Chief Engineer

Scottish

Paul grew up in Glasgow, Scotland, and began his career in the Merchant Navy, transporting natural gas around the world before moving into yachting. He has now been in yachting for five years and plans to continue in the industry for the foreseeable future. He enjoys working with a multinational crew, sampling the local cuisine in every destination, and providing a high level of service for guests. When he is not in the engine room, you will find him cooking up a storm in the kitchen, travelling, or on a ski slope.

Al

Second Engineer

Egyptian-British

Al is an Egyptian-British Marine Engineer with a background in both mechanical engineering and the maritime industry. Born in Egypt, he studied Mechanical Engineering at Port Said University before discovering his passion for working at sea. His career began in 2012 as a steward on Scotland's west coast ferries, an experience which led him to retrain as a Marine Engineer at City of Glasgow College, where he earned his Engineering Officer of the Watch certification. With a strong technical aptitude, Al is skilled at troubleshooting a wide range of systems. In 2023, he transitioned from commercial and passenger vessels to the yachting industry. Outside of engineering, he enjoys exploring new destinations, hiking, sampling local cuisine, and staying updated on the latest technological advancements.
